All persons subscribing for this paper since the 29th of October, 1857, will have their papers discontinued on expiration of the time paid for. All former subscribers cancome under this rule, if they desire to do so.

VOL. 15.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 8, 1858.

NO. 6.

Professional and Business Cards.

April 2, 1858-31-1y*

JOHN F. HERRING. INSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES, WILMINGTON, N. Cl Office at H. VonGlahn's store, North Water street, the sixth copy gratis for one year.

THOMAS W. PLAYER, INSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES, March 19, 1857-29-1v.

COACH AND CARRIAGE MAKERS, Corner Third and Princess streets, opposite R. H. Grant's Livery Stables, Wilmington, N. C., BUGGIES AND ROCKAWAYS constantly on BUGGIES AND ROCKAU Painting and Trimhand. Repairing of all kinds, Painting and Trimhand. ming done in the neatest and most substantial manner. Orders solicited and promptly attended to. Terms, cash on 10.000 LBS. Pure White Lead; delivery. March 5, 1858.—27-1y.

CLARK & FELT,

W. H. McRARY & CO., NOMMISSION MERCHANTS, corner Princess and Water street, Wilmington, N. C.

REFERENCES : H. R. Savage, Cashier Bank Cape Fear, Wilmington, N. C. Col. John McRae, Pres't Bank Wilmington, do. D. A. Davis, Cashier Branch B'k Cape Fear, Salisbury, do. J. G. Lash, " " Salem, do. J. Eli Gregg, President of Bank Cheraw. S. C. [Oct 17]

JAMES O. BOWDEN, INSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES, WILMINGTON, N. C. April 4, 1856.—[31-tf.

ALFRED ALDERMAN, NSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES,

(ARPENTER AND CONTRACTOR,

WILMINGTON, N. C. Will give prompt attention to all business in his line. Feb. 20th, 1857. GEO. W. ROSE,

June 17 WILMINGTON, N. C. S. M. WEST. UCTIONEER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT. WILMINGTON, N. C.

WILLIAM H. LIPPITT, WHOLESALE AND RETIL DRUGGIST, and Dealer in Paints, Oils, Dye Stuffs, Window Glass, Garden Seeds, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, &c. &c., corner of Front and Market sts., immediately opposite Shaw's old stand Wilmington, N. C.

public that he is prepared to take contracts in his line ers, and socks,) and medical attendance. of business. He keeps constantly on hand, Lime, Cement, PLASTER, PLASTERING HAIR, Philadelphia PRESS BRICK, FIRE

N. B. To Distillers of Turpentine,-he is prepared to put up Stills at the shortest notice WILMINGTON MARBLE WORKS, Wilmington, N. C.

G. MILLIGAN, proprietor, respectfully informs the public, that he is prepared to make and put up to order-Marble Monuments of all sizes, Tombs, Head-Stones, Furniture Tops, Mantles, Hearths, &c., of the best quality N. C. of American or Italian Marble, not to be surpassed in style or workmanship, and as cheap as can be procured from any establishment in the country, North or South. Iron Railing-50 different styles for inclosing family lots, from 75 cents to $10 per foot, furnished and put up to order, N. B .- Orders from all parts of the country, accompanied by the cash or satisfactory reference, will receive prompt attention; and all articles warranted to be as recommended, or Nov. 23d .- [12-tf. WILSON'S HARNESS ESTABLISHMENT.

SADDLES, Harness, Whips, Trunks, eather, Oils, Condition Powders for Leather, Oils, Condition Powders for diseased Horses, Coach Trimmings, Carpet Bags, Valises, &c., the largest stock in the State, and sold wholesale and retail, at the lowest New York prices. Harness and Trunks made to order, and repaired. JAMES WILSON, Oct 15-34-1y-7-1y No. 5 Market st., near the wharf. 900 TO 1000 BALES OF COTTON PER ANNUM. AM STILL MANUFACTURING AT THE ROCKY MT. MILLS, Edgecombe county, N. C., 900 to 1000 Bales Cotton per annum, and will deliver at any of our Railroad depots, free of freights, to punctual customers, on 3 months time, or discount of 2\frac{1}{2} per cent. for cash, COTTON YARN, SEINE TWINE, PLOW LINES, &c.

Orders addressed to WILLIAM S. BATTLE, Rocky Mt.,

Orders addressed to WILLIAM S. BATTLE, Rocky Mt., Edgecombe county, N. C., will be promptly attended to.
March 25, 1858
30-10m*

10,000 DOLLARS. WISH TO EXCHANGE THE ABOVE AMOUNT, for WISH TO EXCHANGE THE ABOVE AMOUNT, for likely young NEGROES, from 12 to 25 years of age. Any person having one or more to sell, will please give me a call, as I am ready to pay the highest cash price.

JOHN BARDEN. Magnolia, N. C., May, 1858

NEGROES WANTED. THE SUBSCRIBER IS IN MARKET FOR A number of likely Negroes, MEN AND WOMEN, BOYS AND GIRLS, for which the highest cash prices will be paid. Those having such property to dispose of will find it to their advantage to call on the subscriber at Wilmington. DAVID J. SOUTHERLAND.

$100 REWARD. RANAWAY from the subscriber, on or about the 15th day of June, 1857, his man "RICHARD," sometimes called "RICHARD MALLETT." Said Richard is a mulatto, about 33 to 35 years of age, rather likely, quick spoken, and given to talking, especially if he has been drinking; is slim built, about 5 feet 8 to 10 inches high; has had his ears pierced, and has generally worn small rings in them. He is a Carpenter by trade. He formerly belonged to Mr. T. J. Armstrong, and was raised in the town of Wilmington, and waited about the store of Hall & Armstrong-has a wife in Wilmington named Maria, belonging to Mrs. C. A. Fulton, and now hired to Mr. A. McRae, Jr. He may be lurking about Wilmington, or perhaps may have gone to Weldon, Petersburg, or Norfolk, passing himself off as free, and may have obtained work at some of the railroad depots. I will give the above reward for his delivery to me, or his lodgment in any jail where I can get him.

J. H. MURPHY. Moore's Creek, New Hanover Co., N. C. May 15, 1858.—213-6t—38-tf.

THE SUBSCRIBER, residing a few miles from Clinton, NEGROES WANTED. Sampson County, desires to purchase NEGROES ran-Sing from five to thirty years of age-men, women, boys and girls. The highest cash prices will be paid. He may be called on as above, or addressed by letter at Clinton EVERET PETERSON. Post Office.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINES. TTHIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT WE HAVE BEEN USING I the above make of Machines in our families for a number of months, and find them to be such as they are recommended. Easy to work and don't get out of order -sewing don't rip. We believe they are the best Sewing Machines now in use, that we know of. Wilmington, June 12th, 1858.

E. J. LUTTERLOH. T. C. WORTH. JAMES SHACKLEFORD, B. G. WORTH, JOSEPH B. RUSSELL. ZENO H. GREENE. SAMUEL J. BEERY.

The above Card speaks for itself. A sample of the Machines can now be seen at my store. All orders will be promptly filled for any pattern that may be chosen. Cash upon delivery. Needles also for sale by the dozen at $1 .-All Machines warranted; if defective, others supplied in GEO. H. KELLEY. their places. 237-1m&42-tf

VALUABLE ROCKY POINT LAND FOR SALE. 1,000 ACRES OF LAND, LYING ON THE WEST side of the N. E. branch of the Cape Fear River, 18 miles from Wilmington, known as the VATTS, terms. For further information apply to my father, Levin | with Terms to Agents, sent on application. Address, Lane. My overseer, L. D. Cherry, will show the place.

245-1w-43-tf l'awboro' Southerner please copy and send bill to this

THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT. TIHIS NEW COFFEE POT, for which a patent has been issued, possess this advantage over all others: It is well at the lowest rates. known that, in the ordinary way of boiling coffee, the fine aroma, which gives to the coffee its most delicious flavor, passes off with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes off with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes off with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor and the longer it is boiled, the passes of with the vapor and the longer it is boiled. passes off with the vapor, and the longer it is boiled, the Pennsylvania. more bitter and unpalatable, and unhealthy it becomes; hence a resort to the French Strainer, which gives a rawtasting beverage. "THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT^{5} , entirely prevents the escape of aroma. One-third less coffee is required, and the full flavor of the berry retained. A large number of testimonials have been received from those who have used them. For sale by Aug. 30, 1858-203-14t-3-11m.

WILMINGTON MARBLE AND STONE YARD. THE subscriber having accepted the agency of several large establishments at the North, which will furnish him with no unlimited supply of finished or unfinished for-eign or domestic MARBLE of all qualities, is prepared to fil all orders for MONUMENTS AND TOMB-STONES-and every other article in the line of the business, at reasonable as well as can be done either North or South. The best of reference can be given if required March 10 1854-27-tf JAMES MCCLARANAN.

Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c.

"DERHAM'S POCAHONTAS MIXTURE." THIS PREPARATION now before the public, remains without an equal. It has proved itself to be superior to any remedy ever placed before the afflicted world, curing all where he can be found when not engaged in out-door busi- cases (not everything) of Chronic, Inflamitory or Mercurial Rheumatism, Neuralgia, also Sick or Nervous Headache, Pain or Weakness in the Back, Stiff Joints, Enlargement of List includes the Joints; also Toothache. In all such diseases it was never known to fail. It is no Yankee Patent Humbug which is said to cure every disease that the human race is subject to. All ye afflicted, subject to such diseases, procure a bottle of this Mixture and be cured. Every bottle warranted.

Be Beware of counterfeits. The Price, small bottles 50 cents, large $1. Orders to be d rected J. H. DERHAM, Wilmington, N. C. J. H. DERHAM & BROS., Proprietors.

PAINTS AND OILS. 500 lbs. Pure White Zinc, in Varnish; 500 lbs. Silver Paint in Oil; 50 bbls. " dry assorted;

10 " Spanish Brown; Venetian Red; Yellow Ochre; Linseed Oil: Lard Oil; Best Sperm Oil; 300 lbs. Chrome Green, in oil and dry; wholesale and retail, by

Oct. 2-5-tf

Schools.

Yellow, in Oil and dry. For sale by W. H. LIPPITT, Druggist & Chemist.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY. N JANUARY 12th, 1859, the Institution above named will be opened at Hillsborough, N. C., to be conducted in chief by Capt. C. C. Tew, now Superintendent of the State Military Academy, at Columbia, South Carolina, and Mr. W. D. Gaillard, a graduate of the South Carolina Military Academy, and an instructor of approved experience .-The drill, discipline and course of studies, will assimilate as nearly as practicable to those of the Virginia and South Carolina State Military Institutions. The studies of the first two years, or preparatory course, will be, Arithmetic, Algebra, English Grammar, History of the United States. History of England, Ancient History, Mythology, Geography, French and Latin. The details of the advanced course will be announced hereafter.

The Academic year will continue uninterruptedly from January 12th to the fourth week in November. The charge will be $300 per annum, payable as follows: $100 at the commencement of the Academic year; $100 on May 1st, and $100 on August 1st, for which the Academy JOSEPH L. KEEN, will provide instruction, text books, stationery, quarters, board, fuel, lights, washing, clothing, (except shirts, draw-

No pupil will be admitted under 13 or over 18 years of age, or who cannot read and write with facility. Pupils will be received as day scholars for drill and instruction at the rate of $105 per annum, payable in three equal instalments at the dates above mentioned. But in this case they will be provided with arms and accoutrements only, and no responsibility will rest upon the Academy except during the hours at which such pupils are actually engaged

For further information address the undersigned at Columbia, S. C., until January 1st, after that date at Hillsborough. Oct. 1st, 1858.

LENOIR COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE. MALE AND FEMALE. LEVI BRANSON, A. B., Principal of Male Department.

MISS S. L. HAMPTON, in charge of Female Department. THE SESSION IS NOW OPENING FINELY. OUR AC commodations are good, and we are aiming at a high grade of scholarship. We hope to meet the educational wants of Eastern Carolina. Thanks to our friends for liberal Board in advance, is $6 50; Tuition from $10 to $15; Or

Lenoir Institute, Lenoir County, N. C., or to W. HENRY CUNNINGGINS, Secretary.
1-tf namentals extra. For Catalogues apply to the Principal at TEACHER WANTED,

JAMES MCINTIRE. County. Apply to October 1st, 1858. SCHOOL BOOKS. THE ATTENTION OF THE CITIZENS OF Wilmington, New Hanover and adjoining Counties, is called to the large and extensive assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS recently received by them,

Sept. 30th, 1858 STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

Petition for sale of land by his Guardian Lott Williams. in Equity. IN PURSUANCE of an order in the above cause, made at Spring Term, 1858, of the Court of Equity for New Hanover County, I shall offer for sale by public auction, at the Market House in Wilmington, on Tuesday, October 26th, (being Tuesday of Superior Court week,) a certain piece, or parcel of land lying and being in the County of New estimation, one hundred acres, be the same more or less. Terms-Fifty dollars cash, the balance at six months, under bond with good security.

A. M. WADDELL, C. M. E. Sept. 17th, 1858

CARRIAGE FACTORY. B. R. HOOD respectfully informs the public plying his new patent scroll springs, without which no buggy can be complete. These springs prevent the usual unpleasant motion, and add but little to the cost of a buggy many breakings. All who want an easy riding buggy will junction. give him a call. May 28th, 1858

RHODE'S SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME. N INTRODUCING THE ABOVE HIGHLY AUTHENTIcated article to the Planters of N. Ca., we omit any lengthened remarks, preferring to secure their approval by actual tests and experiments, for which purpose we have made arrangements with Messrs. KEITH & FLANNER, of Wilmington, to receive orders for such quantities as Planters may whether the original grant was not a forgery, and, in require, who will furnish it at our prices, (forty-five dollars such event, that this quicksilver mit e, value forty milper ton,) with the simple addition of shipping expenses. Messrs, K. & F. will also furnish a pamphlet containing directions for use, together with letters from those who have it came into their possession-averred to be eight miltested its value as a fertilizer by actual experiments.

Dec. 25-17-tf

B. M. RHODES & CO.

SELLING OFF AT COST. THE SUBSCRIBER has on hand at his Shop, assortment of CARRIAGES, of his own manufacture, which its possession, but if it ends adversely to the plaintiff, an will be sold at cost. Purchasers will probably never meet expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars in the with such an opportunity again here. Repairing done at short notice, and in the best manner, for cash only. ISAAC WELLS.

settle immediately. March 19, 1858. - 29-tf.

NEW BOOKS FOR AGENTS.

illustrated, entitled "MONUMENT TO THE MEMORY OF HENRY CLAY," giving a complete and reliable Biography of HENRY CLAY, his most able and important Speech- lation for several years to this and other countries. A DUANE RULISON, Publisher. No. 33 S. Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. 51-6meew.

COAL

J. HICKS CONRAD, Shipper of the best quality of HARD WHITE ASH AND RED ASH COAL, all sizes, furnished on board vessels in large or small quantities, FARMERS LOOK OUT.

ALL WHO WISH TO SELL NEGROS WILL FIND it to their interest to address me at Clinton, or visit me at home, as all who know me know I give exceedingly high prices, and that without jewing or telling that Negros but little to invest. Address, - LUKE A. POWELL. Clinton, Sampson Co., N. C. Aug. 3.-1-9m.*

PUBLIC DAY IN DUPLIN COUNTY. THE CLERKS OF THE SEVERAL COURTS OF THE L county of Duplin, the Register, the Sheriff and other offithey will meet in future, at the Court House in Kenansville, ces of edibles and burnables, says that such a load of "I regret," said Mr. Bergeret, "that you mistrusted M. Meran, and having an urgent need of money, begs SCULPTURING, LETTERING, or CARVING, executed ON MONDAY OF EACH WEEK, for the transaction of business connected with their several offices. THOMAS J. CARR, Sh'ff.

September 1st, 1858.

General Notices.

$7 $1000 A YEAR. TA We want Local and Traveling AGENTS in all parts of the

SOUTHERN AND WESTERN STATES, List includes OVER 25 VOLUMES OF

T. S. ARTHUR'S WORKS. Also, a large and saleable list of HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL BOOKS, &c. Among these will be found LIVES of JEFFERSON and HAMILTON, Dr. E. K. KANE, and other distinguished Explorers and Travelers, &c. Life of Louis Napoleon, History of India, AND

The India Muthay; Years in the Wilds of Africa, &c., &c. All of these Books are among the most saleable published. OF LIVINGSTONE'S TRAVELS ALONE. We have sold OVER THIRTY THOUSAND COPIES, from $5 to $10 a day in selling our Publications; and we claim that our List includes the most saleable Books offered to Agents and Canvassers. And believing in LARGE SALES AND SMALL PROFITS, we furnish our Books to Agents for from 10 to 12 per cent. nique, and never returned." below the usual prices.

For full particulars of Agency, Terms, &c., address J. W. BRADLEY Publisher, 48 NORTH FOURTH STREET, Sept. 24, 1858,-4-2m Philadelphia, Pa.

LANDS FOR SALE.

Andrew S. Garr and others, State of Florida. Middle Circuit, in Lewis Curtis & Nath'l. Thurston, Leon County. Trustees of the Apalachicola Land | Chancey. Company, and others.

DURSUANT to a Decree rendered in this cause, the subscriber will sell by auction at the places and times herebraced in "The forbes purchase," and lying in the counties of Leon, Wakulla, Gadsden and Liberty, viz: the lands lying in the first two named counties will be sold at TALLAHASSEE, on the seventh (7th) day of December, and those lying in day of December next. These lands, comprising about a million of acres, extend from the St. Marks to the Apalachicola Rivers; they exhibit every variety of timber indiginous to this latitude, including, of course, live oak, cypress, cedar and juniper; the soil is adapted to the growth of grain, cotton-long and short staple, tobacco, and sugar-cane. The waters abound in fish, and the forest with materials for ship-building and naval ments, with eight per cent. interest from date of purchase; friends. titles to be made by the Receiver when all the purchase money is paid."

JOHN BEARD, Receiver, &c. Tallahasse, August 28, 1858.

VALUABLE PLANTATION AND LAND FOR SALE. THE SUBSCRIBER, BEING DESIROUS OF changing his business, offers for sale his LANDS, ying in Brunswick county, between the Fayetteville and Wilmington road and Cape Fear River, three miles from Brinkley's depot, on the W. & M. R. R., and nineteen miles above Wilmington. The tract of land contains SIX HUNDRED AND FORTY ACRES. There is cleared or twenty acres of good river land, and an excellent lowland Pasture for stock. The uplands are level, and an inexhaustible bed of MARL very convenient. It is a very healthy location, well watered; with a comfortable new dwelthe N. E. side of Cape Fear River on Lyon Swamp, in Bladen county. Terms easy. For further particulars, apply to the subscriber on the premises, or address to Robinson P. O., Brunswick county, N. C. R. A. LYTLE. September 17, 1858.

FOR SALE OR RENT. THE LATE RESIDENCE OF GEN. JOHN GRAY OR PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 34, New Hanover Bynum, deceased, corner of 6th and Orange Streets. For terms, apply to N. N. Nixon, Esq., or C. T. N. Davis, Esq., or to the undersigned, Cottage Home, Lincoln County, N. C. WM. P. BYNUM, Administrator. January 8th, 1858

> FOR RENT. THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY WARDS & WILSON, at Herringsville, Sampson county, N. C. Any person wishing to rent, will find this an excellent stand for business, and a good house. For further particulars, apply to, or address, ROBINSON WARD, Taylor's Bridge, Sampson county, N. C. Sept. 10, 1858, -2-9t.*

The United States Claiming Quicksliver Mines worth Forty Millions Dollars. A suit has been commenced by the United States thought it was already mine, as I had made an offer of

Chadwick, James Brown, and Thomas Lloyd, containing by may be considered one of the most gigantic ever commenced in America, and will involve litigation for a Fifteen thousand francs coming, I knew not how, to W. Halleck, formerly Captain of the Topographical of law. Although but little acquainted with business, I James R. Bolton, William E. Barrow, John Young and replied Robert Walkinshaw. The United States claim the grant made originally as a fraud, and that the defendants answer at this moment, return at five o'clock; meantime e continues to manufacture CARRIAGES, BAROUCHES, are intruders and have no right to the mines. A prayer I will consider the matter. ROCKAWAYS AND BUGGIES. He is prepared at all times is made in the bill for the appointment of a receiver to to execute work with neatness and despatch. He superintake charge of the land, to receive the rents and profits, Felix was again at my door. work shall be as durable, as neat, and as cheap as any other and work, lease and manage the mine; that defendants be enjoined from interfering further with the lands, and He is now constantly employed in manufacturing and ap- they be held to account for all the ore and quicksilver came to beg me to purchase it; and it appears that the converted to their own use and for all waste done the house is now mine. As it suits you, and any other will joke land. On the ninth of this month the argument will be do as well for me, I accept your offer. and is of incalculable benefit, as they completely prevent heard before Judge McAllister, on the application for "You shall be paid in a fortnight in paper on Paris," that strain upon the other springs which has given rise to so | the appointment of a receiver and the issurance of an in-

The District Court of the United States has been for years engaged in hearing testimony on behalf of the tion of the latter ccurt, and the question to be tried is. lion dollars, and the profits received by defendants since lion dollars-should not be transferred and paid over to

The final disposition of this case has interest to the people of the entire country. If the United States is corner of Walnut and Water streets, a general successful, property of the value mentioned passes into way of legal expenses will be the consequence. In the meantime if an injunction issue and a receiver is appoint-N. B.- All persons indebted to me will please call and ed, one million dollars annually will be paid into court.

RISING STAR OF IRELAND.—In consequence of the

the act providing for the removal of encumbrances upon WANTED.—AN AGENT IN EVERY COUNTY to engage in the sale of THREE NEW WORKS, beautiful of prosperity. The rise of waves has been first large a sum went hereof my correspondents, informing them that so large a sum went hereof my means a subline that so large a sum moted by the excessive emigration of its laboring popuand also fifteen Eulogies and Orations, delivered at better husbandry has from these causes succeeded the city. This circumstance, together with the growing had been subscribed for me. glorious destiny,-Newark Daily Advertiser.

> farmers are making their goats useful as well as orna- arrival, I went to my bankers, who received me as the all nearly in the style of the first I opened. mental. Evans, of the Chronicle, grumbling at the pri- inheritor of great wealth. two goats, from $1 25 to $1 50-a ram in and the matter, however, you have some left." team spiked, $2 to $2 50 .- Observer.

How to get Rich. "Nothing can be done without money," said George, which you have bought for me?" pettishly ; "I had a splendid project in my head, but nobody will listen to such a poor fellow as I."

rigors of fortune. Our lamentations, however, took the into your pocket." turn they usually take among companions whose age does not exceed twenty years.

"And I," said Albert, "have finished a work which and? Are you quite certain?" would create my reputation, could a publisher only be met with willing to undertake the expenses of print- francs.

"I have asked our principal," added I, " to increase plied: my salary, after four years of assidious service; and he Among our recent publications are the Public and Private answered, that of such clerks he could find as many as he wished for six hundred francs a year."

"My dear fellows," interrupted George, "although we Livingstone's Travels and Explorations for Sixteen have neither the one nor the other any hope of ever making a fortune, could we not get the credit of being "To what good?" asked I.

" It gives one a position in the world; a large inheriand the sale is increasing. Many of our Agents are making tance augments the consideration in which we are held, everything becomes easy." "I remember," was my answer, "having heard in my childhood of a consin who went to Jamaica or Marti-

> That is just what we want, we will bring this cousin to life, or rather we will kill him. Yes, Jaques Me- will be six. I can easily understand that all these little ran died at Martinique, leaving a sugar plantation, fifty slaves; in short, a fortune valued at two millions of francs, all to his dear cousin, Louis Meran, from attachment to the name."

We laughed heartily at the joke, of which I thought In no more; but my two reckless friends, George and Albert, spread abroad the tale when we broke up, with all thousand francs, say twenty thousand, to make a round the seriousness imaginable.

The next day people came to compliment me. It will, in specified, all the lands belonging to said Company em- of course, be understood that I disayowed all cause; but no one would believe me, my two friends had affirmed the truth of the report. In vain did I assert that it was house, all a joke. Many remembered my cousin Jaques, some the last two, will be sold at QUINCY, on the fourteenth (14th) had actually seen him embark at Nantes in 1789. Among the number of these visits was one not the most agreeable. With the whim of a young man, I had some time previously ordered a frock-coat in the new fashion, without having the means of payment; the garment was worn out, and I yet owed half the bill. There had been for some time a coolness between my creditor and myself, whose importunities I wished to avoid. The rumor scarcely believed myself legitimately possessed of more TERMS—"One-third of the purchase money to be paid of the legacy made him hasten to find me. Such was than my little annuity, which was not yet due. in cash, the balance in one and two years, in equal instal- the penalty I paid for the foolish pleasantry of my "Dare I ask," I inquired, with a blush almost of

"Good day, Monsieur Matthieu," said I, with some you to advance me for a moment a small sum, which I embarrassment; "you are come for the fifty fancs?" " Does monsieur imagine that I am thinking of such a trifle? No, it was for the mourning."

"What mourning?" "The mourning for your cousin, monsieur; and mourning of an heir-at-law. Without doubt you want a complete suit.

"I hope monsieur does not think of withdrawing his land sufficient to work three ploughs, of which are fifteen favors from me. Coat, vest, and pantaloons black; frock with a confidence which the certainty of possessing an of dark bronze for the mourning.

"I tell you agai: I have not yet received -- " "I entreat monsieur not to speak of money; it will ling house and other necessary buildings. I also offer for come soon enough," added the tailor, who had already sale TWO HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND lying on taken out his seissors, and passed his measure round my

I was, in truth, in great want of clothes, and permitted him to continue. No sooner was he gone than another individual entered, who immediately began. " My dear monsieur, you must do me a great service. Buy my house. You are rich, very rich, you want real estate. Fifty thousand francs are nothing for you, only the half of your income; and at present I am in urgent want of money. I expected Monsieur Felix to buy it, but he does not decide, and I have pressing engagements to settle.

"I buy your house? what folly!" "It is no folly. It is a safe investment. After some repairs, in two years it will be worth double. I have your word," and he left without giving me time to reply. So well did he propagate a report of my purchase, that in two hours afterward Monsieur Felix come to me in a great hurry, apparently out of humor. "You have cut the grass from under my feet, mon-

Circuit Court for California, to recover the New Al- forty-nine thousand trancs, believing that the owner maden quicksilver mines, situated in Santa Clara coun-would surely come to my terms. But there is no hope did the amiable to me, I met a beautiful woman, and ty. The property is worth forty millions dollars, and of starving you into an agreement, so, without further Hanover, on Merrick's Creek, adjoining the lands of John the annual profits about one million dollars. This suit preactable, I come to offer you an advance of fifteen thounumber of years. The mines are now held, worked and me who had so much trouble in earning my eight hun-sieur," on entering; I cannot do without that house, and Given under my hand, at Office, this 9th September, 1858. enjoyed by John Parrott, banker, of this city; Henry dred francs of salary as clerk to the registry of the courts have me to dine, when I met with other introductions Engineers, and now a member of an eminent law firm; saw the advantage to be derived from my position, and "It is impossible, monsieur, for me to give you an

"Monsieur," said I, "I had no wish for that house,

Paper on Paris! I was so little accustomed to that currency, as to imagine that it would be necessary to send ment, they opened their eyes in consternation. claimants for the mine. Volumes of evidence have been to the capital for payment, and therefore wrote to a comtaken, and it is only a week since that the examination mercial house, the only one whose address I knew, as of Alexander Forbes, a witness for the United States, from that I received regularly an annuity of five hundred welcome portion of my income.

With what impatience I waited the expiration of the time, when I wrote to Monsieurs Hughes and Bergeret that, having certain funds to invest, I begged their advice as to the safest mode. It appears that the words certain funds" have very different acceptations in commerce, according to the name and position of him who uses them. The news of my inheritance must have reached Paris. Certain funds, situated as I was, was a modest manner of specifying a considerable sum, at least I supposed so, on receiving in answer from the firm that my letter had been received just before the close of the Cortes loan, in which they had purchased to the amount of twenty thousand dollars; that, if I thought it too much, a large profit might be immediately realized, as the stock had gone up. A postcript, in the hand of the enfranchisement of estates in Ireland by the operation of principal, congratulated me on my accession of fortune. Twenty thousand dollars! The letter fell from my them, the introduction of a greater variety in crops and hands; the amount trightened me. I wrote instantly to went beyond my means; adding, that no remittances having been received from Martinique, as they supposed, all a joke?" I was unable to satisfy their claims. The answer came in a day or two, stating that, as I or FERRY PLANTATION. These lands, as all others washington and other parts of the Union, on the occasion negligent and superficial culture of former times, and did not appear to have confidence in the Cortes loan, negligent and superficial culture of former times, and the land of t adjoining them, are underlaid with lime rock and the best of his death—subscription price, $2 00; "THE LAND WE agricultural implements are being brought into use still LIVE IN: OR, TRAVELS AND ADVENTURES IN NORTH they had sold out my stock at a profit of eighty thousand france; and begged me not to feel uneasy, as re-Dwelling and Outhouses, Negro Houses, Stables and Barn; the last two new framed buildings, and on the brink of the river. Wishing to move, I will sell on accommodating river. Wishing to move, I will sell on accommodating vo pages; price $4 00. Circulars, giving full information, a line of a dozen steamers will depart to various quarters of the globe, and to which they will return, will cause me with all the money I could want. The prospectus it to expand to the dimensions and opulence of a great of a German bank was inclosed, to which fifty shares business of Southampton as a large maritime port, may | Eighty thousand francs! Either I understood nothperhaps impede the hitherto rapid increase of Liverpool, ing of commercial matters, or the clerk had written one situated between the two rising cities; but the vast or two naughts too many. My situation became emaugmentation of the commerce of the world will not suf- barrassing. I was overwhelmed with congratulations, fer any of them to decay, though none will be likely to especially when I put on my new suit of black. The poppies from her brow, awake from her lethargy of cen- ditional particulars. I was besieged with annoying turies, and run the race of successful adventure. The questions. In what way would I furnish my house? profitable manufactures in her northern counties, the re- What would I do for public establishments? Some be-ALL WHO WISH TO SELL NEGROS WILL FIND vival of her agricultural labor, and now the termination nevolent ladies wrote to recommend to my notice the init to their interest to address me at Clinton, or visit me of the Atlantic telegraph within her soil and the brilliant stitutions under their guardianship. I was ruined in commencement of commercial enterprise in Galway, must postages; for, in the midst of all my riches, whether have fallen. I wish to make an investment soon, as I have send a magnetic influence into other parts of that fine real or imaginary, I had no money. Fortunately, from island, and arouse her from her ignoble slumbers to a the moment I was held to be rich, no one would take a ing into the snare which he laid for others. For my sou from me, and the tradesman courted the honor of part, I never believed in it." giving me credit.

I did not wish to appear too much the novice, and re-"That is well. You spoke also of a bank?"
"Yes; the establishment of this bank has met with some difficulties, but the affair is not less good, we are "The calculation is easy. Twenty thousand dollars,

I opened both ears.

on the eve of terminating it, and the scrip is well up." "Could that scrip also be sold?" I inquired. "You hold fifty shares," replied the banker, "which have advanced four hundred and fifty florins, making altogether nearly sixty thousand francs."

"Although as yet I have paid nothing?"
"Without a doubt," was the answer. "That is singular, but since you say so, I submit. you be so kind as to specify one?" "Our five per cents, monsieur, our five per cents, I know of nothing safer. At the present rate the gain matters worry you. You will soon have to deal with much larger sums." "By placing all that I hold in the five per cents, I should have an income of -" "That is soon reckoned Three hundred thousand, or thereabouts; the quotation at eighty makes eighteen

"Ah, twenty thousand francs of income!" said I 'when could I receive it?"

"O, to-morrow, if you confide the transaction to our "That, of course," was my rejoinder; "what other could inspire me with so great a degree of confidence?

The banker bowed. Will it be believed? in the midst of all these treasures, I felt a certain embarrassment in asking for a small sum, of which I stood in the greatest need; for, after shame on my cheeks; "can I, without indiscretion, beg want on arrival in a strange city?

"Eh, my dear monsieur, my chest is entirely at your disposal. How much do you want, three, four, ten thou-"I do not ask so much, a thousand will be sufficient. "Will you have it in gold or notes? Call the cashier. May I beg you," said the banker, leading the way "At this time, Monsieur Matthieu, it would be im- as I rose to depart, "may I beg you to continue your good-will to our house?" "Certainly, monsier, you well deserve it," I replied income of twenty thousand francs began to give me.

> "There is yet one favor which I wish to ask." said M. Bergeret; "you are not acquainted with Paris, you have, perhaps, but very few relatives here, come and lighted to make your acquaintance.'

'With the greatest pleasure." "We dine at six; if you have no engagement for the cluding S. Peterson, and F. Thompson. vening, we shall have a few friends, and hope you will

There are few moments which I remember with more satisfaction than those of leaving M. Bergeret's house. I began to believe in the reality of my fortune, and had leons gave me an extraordinary impulse; in fact, I stood in great need of them. Possessor of twenty thousand francs of income, I was obliged, on my arrival in Paris, to leave my trunk at the office of the diligence, not having the means of paying for a lodging. I now hastened he fell overboard and drowned. The son wished to jump to redeem it, and afterward took a coach to the first ho- over and save his father, but was prevented by those in tel pointed out to me, where I established myself in a the boat. handsome apartment, and put on my suit of mourning. I arrived with so much punctuality at M. Bergeret's, that he had scarcely had time to finish telling my history to his wife. She, however, had heard enough to cause overheard whispered remarks made upon me, modest and children, and Meyer Watchman, all of Baltimore. bearing, great skill, splendid business talents. Thus, when M. Bergeret entreated me to regard his house as my own, I promised willingly, although I could profit and invitations. I was taken to the theater and to parties. Now that I was rich, I could almost have confined my expenses to some few presents and fees. Meantime my two friends, George and Albert, had heard with alarm of the success of their report, the At a quarter before the appointed hour, Monsieur truth of which they dared no longer deny. They had been frightened by my departure for Paris, which all the world attributed to difficulties in the liquidation of and did not even think about it, when the proprietor my debts; and feared that I had suffered myself to be deceived by what was concerted between us merely as a

> Three days after my return from Paris, my faithful servant announced their names. "Let them come in," was my reply; for I did not receive all the world. On seeing my handsome time-piece and gilt candelabra, and the new furniture with which I had decorated my apart-

"There is much difficulty in gaining admission here," "Yes; I am besieged by persons with all sorts of soterminated. The suit is now taken out of the jurisdic- francs left me by one of my uncles, and which formed a licitations and projects, but you my dear friends, you will be always welcome. You are come just in time to accompany me to an estate which I have some thought of purchasing. It is not a large affair, one hundred thousand francs." "I take it to be some distance off," said George, with significant jerk of his head. "Two leagues only; but I will take you in my car-

"Your carriage?" 'My carriage!' " You have a carriage?" "Yes, and two dapple-gray horses, which I brought ling, but remained on board the British steamer Clyde, from Paris; as yet I have no saddle-horse, that being more difficult to find."

to declare ourselves guilty.'

My two friends retired to one of the windows, where they whispered to one another, looking all the time very Dear Louis," they said, "you know that your cousin is not dead?"

tain that he ever lived. "You know that this story about your inheritance is "I am persuaded that only you and I believe so," was render traveling safe. my answer.

"We have done great wrong," rejoined my friends great wrong in what was intended only as fun. It causes us much sorrow." "On the contrary, I thank you for it."

"I entreat you to leave things just as they are; a few lays more of credit will prevent the necessity of displa- mistake. The shares had declined £460 a £480. eing my funds." George and Albert regarded me as completely deranged.

is ready, I will tell you all as we are going along. I have pounds. spoken to a bookseller, Albert, who will print your manu-Truth, however, always comes out. Some who were fuse to name prices for future delivery. The weather on the watch were surprised that nothing arrived from was fine, and crops were being rapidly secured. Martinique; well-advised people shook their heads when down with equal rapidity. "The best of it is," said some, "he has ended by fall-

I comprehended that the storm had broken out, on How they Haul Wood in Caswell At last I decided on going to Paris. Immediately on finding one day a dozen notes on my table. They were

"M. Grignon presents his respectful compliment to month, and found to be 7,098 bales. wood as a half starved goat can pull to town, is $1- the Spanish loan, for the stock has again gone up. No that he will be so good as to pay, in the course of the "Will you have the goodness, monsieur," said I, "to My answers were all alike: "M. Meran thanks M. Missouri 84%.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Per Square of 10 lines or less-cash in advance. do...... 1 25 Do. do. 12 do....do.....do......25 00

Advertisements ordered to be continued on the inside charged 37½ cents per square for each insertion after the first.

No advertisement, reflecting upon private character can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be admitted.

tell me precisely how much all these funds are worth Grignon for the bill which has been so long asked for, and sends the amount." One letter only contained no request for money; it at so much the dollar; and the sum already paid. If was from a friend whom I had almost forgotten. Fear-We were three friends, met together, bewailing the you sell to-day, you will put about twenty thousand francs ing that I had been duped, he wrote to lend me five hundred francs, should I wish to remove from a place where so many rumors were circulated prejudicial to my "You say monsieur, two hundred and twenty thous-d? Are you quite certain?" character. My reply gave the necessary explanation, which I concluded: "I am rich, not by an inheritance "As certain as any one can be, within a few hundred in which I never believed, but because it was determined, in spite of my protestations, that 1 should be rich; and I have, in reality, been made very rich; I scarcely know how. This is what I would wish you to say to those who talk of me." I owe more than fortune to my singular situation.

> since it has assured me of a friend upon whom I may count in adversity, should it ever visit me. For another week I was the subject of conversation. "He has been fortunate," if you will . " but I say he is a clever fellow, who has known how to take advantage of circumstances; it is not everybody who could maneuver in this way." For my part, I was for a moment tempted to applaud my own genius, yet a little reflection convinced me that talent had nothing to do with it. I quietly took my should like to make a safe investment of the whole, will place in society as the possessor of twenty thousand francs of income, and still keep it. Moralizing on my sudden change of position, I can only look upon it as one of those strange freaks of fortune which all the world allows to be so unaccountable. Arrival of the Steamer Arabia. Three Days Later from Europe. NEW YORK, Sept. 29th.—'The steamer Arabia, from Liverpool, arrived here this evening, with dates to the

The steamers Alps and Ariel arrived out on the 17th and the Canada on the 18th inst. The steamer Hammonia exploded her magazine soon after leaving Hamburg and put back. Five of her passengers were injured. William Wier, the principal editor of the Daily News,

The cession of port Villa Franca to Russia merely conveys privileges similar to those enjoyed by America The Spanish Chamber of Deputies has been dissolved and a new house convoked for Dec. 1. The excitement among the Mussulmens in Turkey is said to be hourly idcreasing. The China mail brings full details of the treaty negotiations. The important points have all been anticipa-

An attack upon the Emperor of Ava has been ordered, he having refused to yield to the demands of France. A St. Petersburg letter says that a financial plan has been submitted to the Emperor, destined to furnish a capital for the emancipation of the serfs. A bank of issue is to be established, with a capital equalling the indemnity to be paid to the proprietors, and the notes ultimately to be withdrawn from circulation by means of

The Latest. London, Saturday.—St. Petersburg papers of the Oth announce a victory over Schamyl, who lost 327 men. The Russians lost 14 killed and 16 wounded. A Vienna dispatch announces the death of the wife of the brother of the Emperor of Austria.

Arrival of the Prince Albert. NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The steamer Prince Albert, take a family dinner with us to-day; my wife will be de- from Liverpool via Halifax, with twelve of the survivors of the steamer Austria, arrived here at 11 1/2 o'clock .-- " The names of the parties as before given are correct, in-

Several of the passengers, including Mr. Resin, of Richmond, and Mr. Berry, of Hackensack, New Jersey, give statements of the disaster, differing not substanstial ly from the previous accounts. Mr. Peterson, a Swede, says the captain was the first a thousand francs in my pocket, a pleasure which had to jump overboard. There was no engineer or officer never before happened to me. The fifty golden Napo- to be found, and consequently discipline was at an end. Mr. Resin says his father was in the boat when she was cut from the davits, and fell out, but afterwards supported hanself with an oar. After the boat was righted

> Further Porticulars of the Steamer Austria. New York, Sept. 30.—The pessengers by the ill-fated steamer "Austria" from Hamburg, burnt at sea, on > his father caught hold of the stern, but being exhausted the 13th September, not heard from, are as follows: Theodore Gerck, John Weinman, Gus D. Weinman M. Meinberg, of Alexandria; Mrs. Reicharl and three children, of Alexandria; Mrs. F. Willian and two children, of Washington; Carl Meyer, of New Orleans. There is, however, a possibility of the safety of others besides those already known to be saved, as a boat was seen several miles astern of the steamer, with six or eight persons in it. This boat has not yet been heard from Also, there is a possibility that some of those left clinging to the burning steamer, at nightfall, by the barque Maurice, may have been rescued by the Norwegian brig Alfred Vezin, a passenger by the Austria, reports, that when the occupants of the Austria's life boat had been taken on board the Maurice, Hahn, the first officer of the Austria, cut the boat adrift, although told that the Austria's passengers, but says that a wooden boat had been safely lowered, shortly after the fire had broken out. There were four or five in it, including Mr. Heye. This boat has not yet been heard from. Dr. Richard Seldener, of Philadelphia, was a passenger. Dr. E. Boge, of Baton Rouge, was clinging to a rope at the stern of the burning steamer, with Vezin; and it is believed that Boge was swept away. Dr. Boge sent a message, by Vezin, that his last and only thought was Later from Mexico--- The Vomito--- The Revolution at a Stand, &c.

ceipt of late and interesting news from Mexico. The following is a summary: The papers report the vomito prevailing quite extensively at Vera Cruz, and numbers were dying daily. Up to the 5th inst. Gen Robles had not made a land-

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29 .- The Picayane is in re-quite a number that he might be called upon to succeed Zuloago at the head of the government. The proposition recently offered for the recall of Santa Anna was strongly opposed by General Echeary, who threatened to join the liberal army in case the proposition be persisted in. The final success of the liberals "I don't know if he be dead, for I am not very cerat anchor off the port. It was the impression amo was not doubted. Mr. Forsyth, the American minister, was still in Mexico at Tocubayad, where he would remain for several weeks, or until the vomito disappeared sufficiently to

The Atlantic Cable in a Bad Way-Financial Ease in England-Activity in Trade, &c.

New York, Sept. 29.—The advices by the Arabia report that the Atlantic cable is in a bad way. It is now feared that two serious ruptures have occurred sev-"It is our duty to disavow it, we are going in public eral hundred miles from land, and at a bad point. The London Globe says the matter looks serious for the company, which has thrown its money in the sea, and no Money was easier. It was believed the bank would reduce the rate of discount to 21% per cent. In open market money was freely offered at that rate. The bul-"Come," said I, "let us loose no time; the carriage lion in the bank had increased six hundred thousand

Trade in England continues flattering. The manufacturers of goods were so well employed that they re-

Cotton closed buoyant. The imports of the week speaking of me. The edifice so quickly raised tumbled were only eighty-five hundred bales.

Health of Savannah. SAVANNAH, September 30.—There have been seven interments to-day, but none from yellow fever.

Cotton in Augusta.

Augusta, Sept. 30 .- The stock of Cotton in this city has been counted to-day, as usual, for the close of the STATE STOCKS .- North Carolina Stocks are selling day, the little account which he has the honor to inclose." in New York at 94%. Virginia at 93. Tennessee 90.

60 or 70 persons were still clinging to the wreck. The Maurice set sail but returned in the morning, and found the Austria still burning. They then saw the Norwegian brig. He does not know whether she saved any of